

M093 Additions to 21 North St Mungo Street

Introduction

John Honeyman & Keppie carried out unspecified work at this address. Surviving drawings submitted to the Glasgow Dean of Guild Court for two projects on the same job-book page, 34 Carrick Street and Holm Street, for the same client, James McMichael & Son, show W.C. additions to tenements. It is probable that the work carried out here was similar.

Authorship: This is one of over 270 jobs carried out in the office of John Honeyman & Keppie (Honeyman, Keppie & Mackintosh from 1901) during Mackintosh's time there. Mackintosh undoubtedly worked on many of these, but there is no specific evidence for his involvement in this case.

Job Book

The job books of Honeyman & Keppie (later Honeyman, Keppie & Mackintosh) are now held by The Hunterian, University of Glasgow and include four volumes related to the Mackintosh period. The books were used by the firm to keep a project-by-project, day-by-day record of contractors, suppliers and expenditure. The name of a project and/or client is usually at the top of the left-hand page, followed by information about tradesmen who tendered. The name of the measurer (quantity surveyor) is usually at the top of the right-hand page, followed by information about payments to contractors and suppliers. All of the data for M093 is entered in the tables below.
